

LOUISIANA CONFERENCE.

The Elders Are Said to Have Many Friends There.

The subjoined brief report is sent by Elder Samuel F. Wilcox, who writes from Kansas City, May 17:

On the 11th and 12th of May the Elders of Louisiana conference met at the Eureka church in Grant Parish, La., in conference capacity, 12 Elders besides President James G. Duffin being present. All had the privilege of speaking and bearing testimony. Elder James G. Duffin spoke very ably on the Holy Ghost. Dinner was prepared by the Saints and friends.

Two Priesthood meetings were held.

Elder Warren Burraston was released to return home, and from being president of the conference, and David F. Stephens was sustained as president. Elder F. M. Peterson was also released to return home.

Elders Samuel F. Wilcox and Joseph E. Jensen were transferred into the Kansas and Missouri conferences, respectively.

The Louisiana conference is in a very prosperous condition and a vast field for missionary labor is being opened.

We have many friends and investigators, and the work of the Lord is progressing.
