

---

We understand that there are two Mormon elders at work in ward ten, of this parish, endeavoring to get converts to their faith. In this connection the Monroe News says: “The people of Union parish have endured populism with some patience, but Mormonism they will not stand. So it will be safe for the elders to shake the dust of that section from their feet.”

---